Come-and-Sing Messiah

An Invitation

Saturday 11th March
St. Sepulchre's Church,
Holborn

Calling All Singers!

Come and sing Handel's Messiah, under the expert guidance of Jeremy Jackman alongside professional soloists and orchestra. If you enjoy singing, can read music and want to make a real difference to Music as Therapy International this year, please join us at St. Sepulchre's Church. Rehearsing will run from 1:30pm -5:30pm and our performance will begin at 7:30pm.

Jeremy Jackman

To lovers of vocal music it was Jeremy Jackman's face that was known around the world as a member of The King's Singers. Now it is his back ("much my best side") that is more familiar to audiences in the United Kingdom and abroad, as he pursues an increasingly busy international career as a conductor and choral director.

He is Musical Director of the English Baroque Choir, Chorus Master of OSJ Voices and conductor of the Cecilian Singers in Leicester. His work abroad has taken him throughout Europe and America and he represented Great Britain at the International Choral Symposium in Taiwan. Jeremy is a much sought-after director of workshops and summer schools.

Calling All Our Supporters!

It's been a while since we've organised an event where we can bring together our amazing supporters, but our Come-and-Sing Messiah will do just this. Please show your support of our work this year by taking your place in the audience for our performance of Handel's Messiah.

This is our main fundraising event for 2017, and we need your involvement to make it a success. All funds raised will be invested in projects taking some of the benefits of music therapy to vulnerable children and adults worldwide.

Suggested Donation £20

Performance 7:30pm

Contact richardjames@musicastherapy.org (020 7735 3231) to register for the choir or book your ticket. The more the merrier, so please bring your friends and family!
